

Exercise 3

b) Translation (use “some” and “any” wherever possible)

- 1) Nick: “I’m hungry. Have we got any sandwiches?”
- 2) Debbie: “Wait a moment. I’ve got some sandwiches, but we mustn’t eat any. We must wait for Mum and Dad.”
- 3) Nick: “Give me something to drink, please.”
- 4) Debbie: “We haven’t got any drinks. I can give you some tea.”
- 5) Nick: “OK. Give me a cup of tea with some milk. “
- 6) Debbie: “I’m sorry. I haven’t got any milk.”
- 7) Nick: “What about biscuits? Have we got any?”
- 8) Debbie: “No, I haven’t got any. But I’ve got some oranges...”
- 9) Nick: “I don’t like them. Have you got any bananas?”
- 10) Debbie: “I’m sorry, I haven’t got any... But I’ve got some chocolate.”
- 11) Nick: “Thank you, Debbie. “
- 12) Debbie: “Oh, our parents are just coming. They are bringing some drinks. Now we can eat some sandwiches, too.”
