

Let's buy a present for our mother

Debbie and Nick are looking for (1-nach) a nice (2-nettes) present for their (3- ihre) mother. They're going (4-sie gehen gerade) to a shop now.

Debbie: "What can we buy (5-kaufen) for our mum's (6- unserer Mum) birthday next Wednesday (7-Mittwoch)?"

Nick: "What about (8-wie wär's mit) a box of chocolates (9-Pralinen)?"

Debbie: "Oh, no, that's (10- das ist) boring. Haven't you got a better idea (11-Idee) ? We must (12-müssen) give her an interesting present."

Nick: "Hmm, something interesting... What about a white (13-weiß) biro with (14- ??) her name on it (15-??) ?"

Debbie: "Oh , Nick, you're (16- du bist) so silly. A biro is too (17- ??) cheap for our mum. "

Nick: "You know, we mustn't (18- dürfen nicht) spend a lot of money. We need a personal present with (19- mit) an idea (20- Idee) behind it. We can buy (21-kaufen) her a watch, because (22-weil) she's always late in the morning. "

Debbie: "Oh no, Nick. We can't tell (23- sagen) her: 'Mum, here is a watch, because (24-weil) you're (25- du bist) late every morning.' We must (26-müssen) find a great (27-toll) present for her (28-) . Well, and watches (29-Uhren) are too (30-???) expensive. "

Nick: "Yes, you are right (31-Recht haben)- We haven't got (32-nicht haben) so much money. What about (33-wie wär's mit) a calendar? Then she can write (34-schreiben) all the family birthdays in it (35- ??), Debbie.."

Debbie: "That's too (36-zu) cheap again (37-wieder) . Nick, she's a woman. We needn't buy (38-brauchen nicht kaufen) an expensive present, but we must buy (38- kaufen müssen) an interesting present for a lady. "

Nick: "Oh, I've got a great idea (39-tolle Idee)- What about a scarf (40-Schal)? Women need scarves (41- Schale) every day. She can wear (42- tragen) it in rain or in sunshine.

Debbie: "Nick, that's (42- das ist) a great idea. Let's (43-lasst uns) look for (44- nach) a nice scarf in this shop. "

Ten minutes later:

Shop assistant: "Hi, may (45-???) I help you?"

Nick: "Yes, you may (46-???) . We are looking for (47- suchen nach) a nice scarf for our mum's (48-???) birthday. Can we look at (49- anschauen) the scarves (51- Schale) here?"

Shop assistant: "Let me show (52- zeigen) you our new scarves (53- Schale) here. What about the red scarf here? Isn't (54-??) it great?"

Debbie: "How much (55- wieviel kostet) is it?"

Shop assistant: "It's forty-four (56- £ 44) pounds."

Debbie: "That's very expensive (57-teuer) . We haven't got (58-nicht haben) so much money."

Shop assistant: "We've got cheap scarves (58-Schale) for ten pounds, too (56-auch) . Look at (59-schaut an) the blue scarf here. "

Nick: “Wow, that’s a great/super (60- toll) scarf for ten pounds. ”

Debbie: “OK, we can buy (61-kaufen) that. Can you put a nice paper around it?”

Shop assistant: “Of course (62- natürlich), I can. Just a minute. . . . . Here you are (63-bitte schön) .”

Debbie: “Thank you very much. Good-bye (64 auf Wiedersehen).”

Nick: “Wow, now we’ve got (65-wir haben) the right (66-richtige) present for Mum.”

Debbie: Yes, we have (67-??) --, my dear brother (68-brother).
