

Fill in the correct verb forms*It's a quarter past seven.

Mrs Snow is making (1-machen) breakfast in the kitchen.

First she takes (2-nehmen) cups from the cupboard and puts (3-stellen) them on the table. Then she makes (4-machen) a pot of tea. She can hear (5-hören) Jenny and Sally in the bathroom. Sally is cleaning/[brushing] (6-putzen) her teeth and Jenny is taking (7-nehmen) a shower. Mrs Snow can also hear (8-hören) her husband: he is [just] driving (9-gerade fahren) the car out of the garage.

It's half past seven.

Sally and Jenny are sitting (10-sitzen) at the table and [are] having breakfast (11-frühstücken). Their father comes (12-kommen) from the garage and sits down (13-sich setzen), too. He can eat (14-essen) some sandwiches before he must go/drive (15-fahren) to work. Mrs Snow is working (16-arbeiten) in the kitchen and [is] making (17-machen) some sandwiches for the girls for school. So the girls needn't eat (18-essen) in the school cafeteria at lunchtime.

It's ten to eight o'clock.

Sally and Jenny are standing (19-stehen) at the bus stop and [are] waiting (20-warten) for the bus. They must go (21-fahren) to school by bus. They can't walk (22-zuFuß gehen) ; it's too far away. Nick and Debbie often come (23-kommen) to the same bus stop, too. They sometimes ride (24-fahren) to school on their bikes. Today they are already waiting (25-warten schon) at the bus stop.

It's twenty-five past eight.

The bus is late to school today. So the children run (26-rennen) from the bus to school and sit down (27-sich setzen) in their classroom. The teacher is [just] writing (28-gerade schreiben) a sentence on the board. The pupils are copying (29-abschreiben) the sentence from the board.

It's half past twelve.

Jenny and Sally are sitting (30-sitzen) in the cafeteria and [are] eating (31-essen) their sandwiches. They needn't stand (32-stehen) in a long line to get their lunch. Ben is standing (33-stehen) in the long line and [is] waiting (34-warten) for his school lunch. He doesn't like (35-nicht mögen) sandwiches; so he must stand (37-stehen) and wait (36-warten) for his lunch. The school lunch ladies fill (37-füllen) the plates and hand/give (38-reichen) them to the pupils in the line. They're (39-sein) very busy.