

Exercise 1 with “there is/there are....”

Schreibe auf , was es alles in deinem Zimmer gibt:

1. There's a sofa in my room. (Sofa)
2. There is a shelf in my room. (Regal)
3. There are four chairs in my room. 4 Stühle)
4. There's a table in my room. ( 1 Tisch)
5. There's a clock in my room. ( 1 Wanduhr)
6. There are three lamps in my room. (3 Lampen)
7. There's a TV set in my room. (TV set)
8. There are five posters in my room. (5 Poster)
9. There's a rug in my room. (1 Teppich)
10. There's a bed in my room. (1 Bett)
11. There's a wardrobe in my room. (1 Kleiderschrank)
12. There's a computer in my room. (1 Computer)
13. There are two skateboards in my room. (2 Skateboards)
14. There are two pictures in my room. (2 Bilder)
15. There's a mirror in my room. (1 Spiegel)
16. There are two doors in my room. (2 Türen)
17. There's a dog in my room. ( 1 Hund)

Und nun frage deinen Freund, ob es die obigen Sachen genauso in seinem Zimmer gibt — nämlich in der gleichen Anzahl. Schreib auch jeweils eine bejahende und eine verneinende Kurzantwort dazu. Schreibe die ganze Übung auf ein eigenes Blatt.

Beispiel:

1. Is there a sofa in your room? — Yes, there is. (No, there isn't.)
2. .....
3. .....

Mach du jetzt weiter.....
