Ein Vergleich des Gebrauchs von:
The Simple Present	The Present Progressive
Dave walks to school every day.	Dave is walk ing to school now .
Amber rides to school on her bike every day,	Amber is rid ing to school on her bike now .
Jay runs to school every day.	Look, Jay is running to school.
The Azads drink orange juice every morning.	They are drink ing orange juice now .
I wait for the bus every morning.	I am waiting for the bus now.
We write a letter every week.	We are writ ing a letter now .
You read a story every day.	You are reading a story now .
Du verwendest das Simple Present	Du verwendest das Present
immer dann, wenn du ausdrücken willst,	Progressive , um auszudrücken, das dass du etwas manchmal, oft, immer	etwas gerade jetzt passiert. Dies wieder tust. Es steht auch bei	Handlung ist also noch im Gange (im
aufeinanderfolgenden Handlungen:	"Verlauf"):
"Fírst I get up; then I go to the	"Look at Jay: he ís run níng to bathroom; after that I pac k my	school" schoolbag"	