

On Thursday Luke, Olivia, and Pia meet Dave in Greenwich. They are walking around and talking about music. Fill in some or any:

Luke: I'm a techno fan. England is great for techno. I've got some ⁽¹⁾ great techno CDs at home.

Dave: Techno! Isn't it too loud for any ⁽²⁾ normal people?

Olivia: Yes, it is. I like disco music.

Pia: Are there any ⁽³⁾ CD shops in Greenwich?

Olivia: Well, there are some ⁽⁴⁾ small shops in town.

Luke: There aren't any ⁽⁵⁾ really good shops.

Olivia: But there are some ⁽⁶⁾ really big shops in London. We can't go there now. Let's go to that small shop over there. It isn't bad.

Pia: Yes, maybe I can buy some ⁽⁷⁾ CDs there.

Dave: Have you got any ⁽⁸⁾ money, Pia?

Pia: Yes, I have. Well, I haven't got any ⁽⁹⁾ English money. But I've got some ⁽¹⁰⁾ euros. Can't I pay with euros here?

Dave: No, you can't.

Olivia: Well, Pia, I can give you some ⁽¹¹⁾ English pounds. And you give me some ⁽¹²⁾ euros when I go to see you in Berlin.

Pia: Maybe I can buy some ⁽¹³⁾ CDs with German music. So your parents can listen to some ⁽¹⁴⁾ German music. Let's go in.

Now they are in the shop and are talking to the shop assistant::

Shop a.: Can I help you?

Pia: Have you got any ⁽¹⁵⁾ CDs with German music?

Shop a.: I'm sorry. We haven't got any ⁽¹⁶⁾ CDs with modern German music. But we've got some ⁽¹⁷⁾ CDs with Mozart's music.

Pia: Oh no, I don't want any ⁽¹⁸⁾ CDs with Mozart or Beethoven. I'm looking for some ⁽¹⁹⁾ modern German music.

Olivia: And I'd like some ⁽²⁰⁾ disco music. Have you got any ⁽²¹⁾?

Shop a.: Yes, we have. I can show you some ⁽²²⁾ CDs over there.

Olivia: That's wonderful. Can we listen to any ⁽²³⁾ CDs?

After half an hour they buy some ⁽²⁴⁾ CDs and go home again.
