

At the school party

Last Friday (2-Freitag) the school had its end-of-school party. When Jay's older cousin Malik came (3-kommen) to the party, he first bought (4-kaufen) a ticket for two pounds fifty (5-)zwei-Pfund-fünzig) and went (6-gehen) to the toilet to look into the mirror (=Spiegel) to check if his costume (7-Kostüm) was fine. Yes, it was (8-ja) He was (9-sein) a great tiger. When he came (10 -kommen) out of the toilet, the party started (12-beginnen) and Malik listened to (11 zuhören) the music. There were so many interesting (13- interessant) "animals". He walked (14-zu Fuß gehen) around and saw (15-sehen) a black cat. It was (16-sein) a great cat; so he walked/went (17-gehen) up to her and talked (18-sprechen) to her: "Hi, my dear, you've got a cool (19-lässig) costume (20-Kostüm)." The cat smiled (21-lächeln) and answered (22-antworten): "Thank you (23-danken) you, my dear Malik."

Malik was surprised (24-überrascht). She knew (25-kennen) him, but he didn't know (26-nicht kennen) her. So he tried (27-versuchen) a few names: "Are you Rebecca?" She answered (28-antworten): "Don't be (29-Sei nicht) stupid. She's only eleven." Damn, he thought (30-denken); that was no good. He laughed (31-lachen) at her and said (32 sagen): "Ah, I know (33-wissen), it was just a joke (34-Spaß/Witz). You're (35-Your/You're?) Irina, Irina Elliot, haha, I know (36-kennen) your sweet voice (37-Stimme).” The cat miaowed.

“Let’s (38-lasst uns) dance,” Malik said (39-sagen). He took (40-nehmen) her hand and pulled (41-ziehen) her to the dance floor. After a long slow (42-langsam) dance the tiger said in a quiet (43-ruhig) voice: “Now I must feed (44-füttern/feed) my good-looking cat. Come on. What do you want (45-wollen)?” The cat answered (46-antworten): “Hm, I’m a cat, but don’t feed (47-nicht füttern) me with mice (48-Mäusen). What about (49-wie wäre es mit) a burger?” They ran (50-rennen) to the snack bar where (51-wo) the tiger gave (52-geben) his cat some food. There they sat (53-sitzen) at a small table and ate (54-essen) a big (55-groß) cheeseburger together (56-zusammen).
