

1) First put in the missing prepositions in the gaps with letters

(a) (b) (c) (d) etc. in the whole text:

2) Then connect the clauses with “and, where, when/if, that, because” in the gaps with numbers (1) (2) (3) (4) etc. ;

Olivia is looking (a) information (b) Mudchute Farm and Park (1) she wants to visit it (c) her family and her friends. She googles it (2) finds the website (d) Mudchute Farm & Park. She is happy (3) she finds lots (e) information (f) their website. It says (4) the farm is open (g) Tuesday (h) Sunday, (5) it doesn't open (i) Mondays. The pictures (j) the website show Olivia (6) the farm is nice (7) has got lots (k) animals.

The large farm animals are (l) the fields, (8) the small animals are (m) the Pets Corner. The farm animals usually are (n) a roof (9) it rains. The horses and ponies are (o) the Riding Centre, (10) you can ride (p) them in the fields. (11) you want to ride (q) a horse, your parents must book a horse (r) you. The best thing is(12) it doesn't cost any money. It's free, (13) you must book a horse. Parents can also book a pet (14) their child wants to play (s) a hamster or a rabbit or a guinea pig alone. This is important(15) Lucy loves rabbits(16) wants to play (t) a rabbit alone. Lucy thinks (17) rabbits love her, too.

The website says(18) you can have lunch (u)
Mudchute Kitchen,(19) you can also bring your own picnic (20) eat it (v) the picnic area (21)
a tasty snack at Mudchute Kitchen is too expensive (w)
you.

The Frasers like the idea (x) a visit to Mudchute Farm(22) tell Holly (y) it. They don't want to go (z) a Sunday(23) lots of people go there (aa)
Sundays. The Frasers want to go (bb) Saturday, (24)
Holly and her sister usually visit their dad every Saturday.
Holly's dad tells her (25) they can visit him (cc)
Sunday. It means(26) Holly can come along (dd)
the Frasers. Olivia wants to invite Amber, too, (27) Amber never likes to say yes. Holly likes the idea (ee) a picnic (28) her mother can never give her much pocket money.

Now they all keep their fingers crossed (29) they hope (ff) good weather (gg) Saturday.