

1) First put in the missing prepositions in the gaps with letters

(a) (b) (c) (d) etc. in the whole text:

2) Then connect the clauses with “and, where, when/if, that, because” in the gaps with numbers (1) (2) (3) (4) etc. ;

Olivia is looking for (a) information on/about (b) Mudchute

Farm and Park ..... (1) she wants to visit it with (c) her family and her friends. She googles it ..... (2) finds the website on (d) Mudchute Farm & Park. She is happy ..... (3) she finds lots of (e) information on/about

(f) their website. It says ..... (4) the farm is open from (g)

Tuesday to (h) Sunday, ..... (5) it doesn't open on (i)

Mondays. The pictures on (j) the website show

Olivia ..... (6) the farm is nice ..... (7) has got lots of (k) animals.

The large farm animals are in (l) the fields, ..... (8) the small animals are in (m) the Pets Corner. The farm animals usually are under (n) a roof ..... (9) it rains. The horses and ponies are in (o) the Riding Centre, ..... (10) you can ride

on (p) them in the fields. .... (11) you want to ride on (q)

a horse, your parents must book a horse for<sub>(r)</sub> you. The best thing is .....(12) it doesn't cost any money. It's free, .....

(13) you must book a horse. Parents can also book a pet for

(14) their child wants to play with<sub>(s)</sub> a hamster or a rabbit or a guinea pig alone. This is important .....(15) Lucy loves rabbits .....(16) wants to play with<sub>(t)</sub> a rabbit alone. Lucy thinks ..... (17) rabbits love her, too.

The website says .....(18) you can have lunch at<sub>(u)</sub>

Mudchute Kitchen, .....(19) you can also bring your own picnic ..... (20) eat it in/at<sub>(v)</sub> the picnic area ..... (21)

a tasty snack at Mudchute Kitchen is too expensive for<sub>(w)</sub>

you.

The Frasers like the idea of<sub>(x)</sub> a visit to Mudchute

Farm .....(22) tell Holly about<sub>(y)</sub> it. They don't want to go on<sub>(z)</sub> a Sunday .....(23) lots of people go there on<sub>(aa)</sub>

Sundays. The Frasers want to go on<sub>(bb)</sub> Saturday, ..... (24)

Holly and her sister usually visit their dad every Saturday.

Holly's dad tells her ..... (25) they can visit him on<sub>(cc)</sub>

Sunday. It means .....(26) Holly can come along with (dd)

the Frasers. Olivia wants to invite Amber, too, ..... (27)

Amber never likes to say yes. Holly likes the idea of (ee) a picnic ..... (28) her mother can never give her much pocket money.

Now they all keep their fingers crossed ..... (29) they hope for (ff) good weather on (gg) Saturday.