

Luke's letter about their plans in New York:

Fill in the correct form of the future tense.

Dear Grandma,

Here are our plans for the first week in New York:

1. Tomorrow my uncle and my aunt are going to have a barbecue.
(1) (have)

Some neighbours are going to come to the barbecue, too.
(2) (come)

2. On Monday we are going to walk through Manhattan.
(3) (walk)

We are going to buy jeans for everyone.
(4) (buy)

3. On Tuesday Dad and I are going to take a boat to Ellis Island.
(5) (take)

4. On Wednesday Dad is going to meet a friend in Manhattan.
(6) (meet)

5. On Thursday we are going to visit the Empire State Building.
(7) (visit)

6. On Friday Irina and I are going to look at our cousin's school.
(8) (look at)

7. On Saturday we are going to climb the Statue of Liberty.
(9) (climb)

Mum is going to stay at home.
(10) (stay)

She is going to wash our dirty socks.
(11) (wash)

Poor Mum! A mother is never on holiday!

Lots of love,

Luke

P. S.

- Don't forget to feed my dog. Or he is going to die from hunger.
(12) (die)

Thanks a lot. I am going to bring you some sweets from America for your help.
(13) (bring)
