

Connect the two sentences

by making the second sentence a relative clause

Example:

This is the bridge. I told you about it

- a) This is the bridge which I told you about.
- b) This is the bridge that I told you about.
- c) This is the bridge I told you about.

1) The name of the bell is Big Ben. It hangs in the bell tower.

- a) _____
- b) _____
- c) _____

2) The London Eye is a giant wheel. It gives you a great view of London.

- a) _____
- b) _____
- c) _____

3) The capsule gives you the best view. It is on top of the wheel.

- a) _____
- b) _____
- c) _____

4) The visitors don't have to wait in a queue. They buy their tickets online.

- a) _____
- b) _____
- c) _____

5) The visitors wait in a long queue. They haven't got a ticket yet

- a) _____
- b) _____
- c) _____

6) The fire is called the Great Fire. It broke out in 1666.

- a) _____
- b) _____
- c) _____

7) The diary tells us a lot of details about the fire. Pepys wrote it.

a) _____

b) _____

c) _____

8) This is a painting of the fire. Samuel Pepys wrote about it.

a) _____

b) _____

c) _____

9) Look at the people. They threw their things into the water.

a) _____

b) _____

c) _____

10) And here are the things. They threw them into the water.

a) _____

b) _____

c) _____

11) And here are the boats. They jumped into them.

a) _____

b) _____

c) _____

12) The houses were on fire. Pepys saw them at the end of the bridge.

a) _____

b) _____

c) _____

13) The fire started in a house. It belonged to the King's baker.

a) _____

b) _____

c) _____

14) The church was St. Paul's Cathedral. Christopher Wren designed it.

a) _____

b) _____

c) _____

15)