

Seppi's Visit to London

Fill in all correct relative pronouns

*(and indicate whether you can leave it out by a cross X:
e. g. "who/that/X")*

Seppi spends a week in London with his English exchange pupil Mike. Here is the conversation _____⁽¹⁾ they have about a walk around London:

Seppi: "I'd like to visit some sights in London. What would you recommend visiting?"

Mike: "OK, let's go for a walk around London. What are the sights _____⁽²⁾ you would like to see most?"

Seppi: "I'd like to see the famous sights _____⁽³⁾ I learned about in my English lessons. But I have forgotten the names. We learned about a prison _____⁽⁴⁾ shows you the history of a murderer _____⁽⁵⁾ killed many women at night-time."

Mike: "Ah, that's the London Dungeon and the man _____⁽⁶⁾ name you've forgotten is Jack the Ripper. Well, we don't really know whether he is the man _____⁽⁷⁾ killed all these women. The London Dungeon offers you three different rides _____⁽⁸⁾ you can choose from..."

Seppi: "Yes, I know. I'd like to take the ride _____⁽¹⁰⁾ takes me to the underworld of Jack the Ripper. This is the ride _____⁽¹¹⁾ I would like most and _____⁽¹²⁾ makes me scared."

Mike: "Yes, it's very scary. What is another sight _____⁽¹³⁾ you'd like to see?"

Seppi: "What's the name of the monument _____⁽¹⁴⁾ reminds us of the Great Fire of London?"

Mike: "Well, people just call it "the Monument" with a capital M. It's funny, isn't it?"

SB3_U5_Gr_Exc1: defining relative clauses

Seppi: "Yes, it is, because there are so many other monuments _____

(15) make you think of historical events and famous people. What's the name of the architect _____ (16) designed many buildings after the Great Fire?"

Mike: "Christopher Wren. We can look at some buildings _____ (17)

Christopher Wren designed. The most famous building _____ (18) he designed is St. Paul's Cathedral. " Seppi: "Yes, let's go there. Our English teacher told us something _____ (19) I have forgotten. I think about a funny gallery high up in the cathedral...."

Mike: "Oh yes, that's probably the whispering gallery. If you whisper at one side of the gallery, your friend can hear everything _____ (20) you said on the other side of the gallery."

Seppi: "Yes, that's what the teacher told us. He also told us about a park

_____ (21) you can see a memorial to Princess Diana. "

Mike: "That's the Hyde Park. We can go there for a run _____ (22) you'll never forget. Yes, and at one corner you can listen to people _____ (23) stand on boxes and give speeches on crazy topics. "

Seppi: "Well, Mike, I think we have got enough sights _____ (24) we can look at. Let's start right away. "

Now Mike and Seppi are walking around London. Right now they're at the southern end of Westminster Bridge and are walking across..

Seppi: "What's the name of the bridge _____ (25) we are just crossing?"

Mike: "It's called Westminster Bridge. It's the bridge _____ (26) connects South London with Central London. The building _____ (27) you can see at the end of the bridge is a famous clock tower. "

Seppi: "Oh yes, that's Big Ben, isn't it?"

SB3_U5_Gr_Exc1: defining relative clauses

Mike: "Not quite. Big Ben is the name of the clock _____ (28) hangs in the tower. It's the clock _____ (29) sound you can hear on TV and on the radio."

Seppi: "And the big buildings _____ (30) are next to Big Ben are the Houses of Parliament, aren't they? I remember a picture _____ (31) was in my English book."

Mike: "Yes, these are the Houses of Parliament. But let's go to the London Eye."

Seppi: "What's the London Eye?"

Mike: "The London Eye is a big wheel _____ (32) can carry several hundred people. From the top you've got the best view of London."

Seppi: "Well, I guess, we've seen enough for today. Let's go home. I'm tired now."