

Sports activities in my family and by my friends

Put in prepositions of time (for, since, in ) and place (at, in, from, to) and conjunctions (since, when)

I've got a new friend _____ (1) school. His name is Kevin, and he sits next _____ (2) me _____ (3) the classroom. His family moved _____ (4) Liverpool _____ (5) Salzburg _____ (6) July. So he has lived here _____ (7) July. It's January now; so he has lived here _____ (8) six months. He came _____ (9) our school _____ (10) September; so he has been my classmate _____ (11) five months. We started to play table tennis together _____ (12) October; so we have played together _____ (13) October, i. e. we have played together _____ (14) four months. Unfortunately, he had an accident last week; so we haven't played _____ (15) a week. He has been _____ (16) hospital now _____ (17) a week, but he will stay _____ (18) hospital _____ (19) another week.

My father has played table tennis _____ (20) he started high school; so he's better than I am. I'm sure that I'll beat him if I practice hard. Of course, he has played _____ (21) thirty years and I have only played _____ (22) half a year; but my reactions are quick and I can run fast. So sooner or later I'll beat him. My mum doesn't play table tennis. She has never played table tennis. But she has played lawn tennis _____ (23) she joined a tennis club _____ (24) 2016. So she has played _____ (25) six years. I also play lawn tennis, but I can't beat her yet. Just wait _____ (26) a year, and I'll beat her, too.

I also play football; I'm good enough to play _____ (27) the school team. I've played _____ (28) the school team _____ (29) two years now, that means I have played _____ (30) 2021

In summer I love swimming. I learned to swim _____ (31) I was five years old. So I have been a swimmer _____ (32) I was five years old. I'm twelve now: so I've been a swimmer _____ (33) seven years.

My sister is a swimmer, too. She learned to swim _____ (34) she was four years old _____ (35) 2017. So she has been a swimmer _____ (36) 2017; so she has been a swimmer _____ (37) almost six years.

She also loves riding her bike. Well, she started with a tricycle _____ (38) she was three. So she has been a cyclist _____ (39) 2016; so she has been a cyclist _____ (40) seven years.

Aren't we a great family with many sports activities?