

Present Perfect or Past Tense

I. Mum is in hospital

Kevin's mother is in hospital, but she gave him a list of things to do. Every day she phones him and asks him whether he has done his daily task. Here is the list:

1. feed the cat
2. pay the milk
3. eat the old soup
4. write a letter to Aunt Mary
5. throw the old newspapers away
6. read the English lesson
7. catch the mice in the garden

Write the questions and answers in the following text:

1) Mother: " Have you fed the cat, Kevin?"

Kevin: "Yes, I have. I fed it last night"

2) Mother: " _____ the milk? "

Kevin: "Yes, I _____. I _____ yesterday "

3) Mother: " _____ the old soup ?"

Kevin: "Yes, I _____. I _____ it last night "

4) Mother: " _____ a letter to Aunt Mary ?"

Kevin: "Yes, I _____. I _____ it two days ago "

5) Mother: " _____ the old newspapers away ?"

Kevin: "Yes, I _____. I _____ them away on Monday .

6) Mother: " _____ your English lesson ?"

Kevin: "Yes, " I _____. I _____ it an hour ago "

7) Mother: " _____ the mice in the garden ?"

Kevin: "Yes, " I _____. I _____ them yesterday afternoon "

II. Present Perfect or Past Tense? Which is correct?

1) Jamie's father: "Jamie, what about your homework?"

Jamie: "I (to finish; already) it. Here it is.

I it yesterday."

2) Jamie's father: "..... (to find; already) a football club?

Jamie: "No, I (to find; not yet) one yet . But I (to see) a notice in the newspaper yesterday.

3) Jamie's father: "..... (to learn) any new pieces of music at the piano lesson yesterday?

Jamie: "I (not to go) to the piano lesson yesterday." .

4) Jamie's father: "..... (to have lunch; yet)? "

Jamie: "Yes, I I'm (not hungry any longer) .."

5) Jamie's father: "..... (to write; letter; grandmother, already) a letter to your grandmother?

Jamie: "Yes, I have . I (to write) her a long letter yesterday

Jamie's father: "OK. Then you can help me in the garden."